Second Generation (Children)

2. Jonathan Kearns [335] (William Thomas Mosson<sup>1</sup>) was born on 17 Jan 1761 in County Cork, Ireland and died on 26 Jan 1850 in West Virginia at age 89.

General Notes: Jonathan Keirns, was born in Ireland and came to America with the British army as a British soldier. He served in the Revolutionary War on the side of the British. Jonathan Keirns was born on January 17, 1761, and was married in 1781, at Bloody Run, Pennsylvania, to Catherine Renter (Ginther, Kinter). He settled in Pennsylvania and was engaged in the promotion of public works, especially in the iron and ore industry. After living in Pennsylvania for a time, he left for West Virginia to seek a new location. Finding a location in West Virginia, he sent for his wife and their four children, who came to him overland on horseback. The wife carried the children in sewed pockets of bed ticks, two children on each side. She walked a part of the way. Here Jonathan Keirns and his wife lived and died, on Big Sandy Creek, West Virginia. He died on January 26, 1853, at the ripe age of ninety-two. They had four children: William, John, George and Sarah, all deceased.

Farmer, where they built a new home. They lived there until April 9, 1909, when they built and moved into a new home, just across the highway. This new home was the birthplace of Rebecca Vivian Kearns. This home was consequently sold to Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Hubbard.

There was a huge barn built behind the house, constructed without a single nail... employing only pegs. It was razed in the late 1950's or Early 1960's due to decay.

Granny Mary was said to have thought a lot more of her married family than her own family.

Marvin was a farmer.

Due to his failing health, on July 18, 1922, they moved to Greensboro, NC where Marvin opened a [grocery store or meat market] on [Spring Garden Street or downtown]. The record written by Luna Kearns Hames describes the store as a grocery store located on Spring Garden Street, however, my father recalled that it was a meat market and was located in downtown Greensboro in a building near the train station at Church Street. Death Certificate specifies his business as a meat market.(Eugene Kearns, Jr.)

Marvin died at St. Leo's Hospital in Greensboro, NC. My father (E. W. Kearns, Sr.) was in the room at a time near his death and his father told him to "get his clothes he was going home." The attending physician stopped my father and shook his head, "No." My grandfather died shortly thereafter of a ruptured appendix. (If you are a Kearns reading this, be forewarned, this seems to be a genetic trait. I, myself, had a ruptured appendix with no more than slight discomfort. But for the grace of modern medicine, I too would have died at the age of about 35 years old.)
